CHURCH OF CHRIST

A Psalm for Scientists

Psalm 104

More references to creation can be found in the book of Psalms (70 times) than in Genesis (47t), Job (41t), or Isaiah (35t).

All of God's works can be summarized with three important words: creation, redemption, and judgment. "The works of the LORD are great, sought out [studied, NASB] of all them that have pleasure therein" (Psalm 111:2),

Psalm 104 praises God for His creative works. What are they? Below is a list God's works of creation that are mentioned in this ancient hymn and have been studied by various sub-disciplines of science:

1. Physics (104:2)
2. Meteorology (vv. 3-4)
3. Geology (vv. 5, 8)
4. Oceanography (vv. 6, 9, 25)
5. Zoology (v. 11, 18, 20, 21, 22)
6. Ornithology (vv. 12, 17)
7. Botany (vv. 14-16)
8. Astronomy (vv. 19, 22)
9. Anthropology (v. 23)
10. Ichthyology (v. 25)
11. Herpetology (v. 26)
12. Volcanology (v. 32)

God's wisdom created all these and connected them to form a system of interdependent parts for our benefit so we can be saved (vv. 33-35). The Creator is also the Redeemer and Judge. Johannes Kepler (1571-1630) was a seventeen-year-old German who entered college intending to be a preacher. Because of his brilliant mathematical mind, he became an astronomer who reasoned that since God was rational, we could discover the laws that govern the universe. He said that we are "merely thinking God's thoughts after Him."

Thank You

Thank you so much for all you did to help us through this difficult time and for honoring our mom's wishes of having her visitation and funeral at the church building. The singers did a wonderful job, and we appreciate them coming together with such short notice. We appreciated the delicious meal that was provided for the family at the church and the beautiful dish garden basket sent by the church. Thank you to all of those who sent cards and visited mom and for the many prayers. We appreciate everything that you did.
The family of Dorothy Hunter

Thank you so much for the kindness you have shown my family. We have been welcomed and blessed to be a part of this church family these past twenty-six years. Ashley was blessed to be a part of the youth group. Thank you for your support during this time of loss.

Moving

Melton and Wilma Jack have worshipped and served this congregation for 31 years. Melton worked as the maintenance man for many years, making sure the building was kept in good working order. We are saddened to learn that the Jacks will be moving closer to their son in Winchester, TN. Their new address is: 4240 Owl Hollow Rd. Belvidere, TN 37306. They will be greatly missed.
