Church
a human connection of love,
not a building

a lifestyle,
not a weekly activity

an act of service,
not a service to attend

Abounding in the Lord’s Work

The work you do for the Lord is never wasted (1 Cor. 15:58). Every act of kindness, every prayer offered, every encouraging word, and every faithful service matters to God. Even when the results are unseen, He sees and re-members. Scripture encourages us to remain steadfast and immovable, always serving with willing hearts. Continue faithfully, knowing that your labor in the Lord has eternal value and will never be in vain.

Thank You

It’s wonderful to have a church family that cares for you. Thank you all for the many cards, texts and messages concerning the passing of my brother, Joe. Each of you are a blessing to us.

In Christian Love, Debbie Couch

Bring 26 PEOPLE TO THE LORD in 2026

GOD’S WELL NEVER RUNS DRY

The “dog days of summer” is a phrase many people use to describe the hottest, most draining stretch of the season. The heat feels heavy, energy runs low, and even simple tasks can feel harder than usual. While the Bible doesn’t use that expression, it does speak often about weariness, dryness, and God’s faithful care in every season of life.

In Psalm 63:1, David writes, “O God, You are my God; early will I seek You; my soul thirsts for You; my flesh longs for You in a dry and thirsty land where there is no water.” That is more than a description of desert heat—it’s a picture of spiritual need. Just as the body longs for cool water in the deep summer, the soul longs for the living presence of God.

Jesus extends this promise in John 7:37–38, saying, “If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink.” He does not merely offer relief from physical discomfort but refreshment for the inner life. The world can leave us weary in every season, but Christ offers living water that renews the heart.

Even in times of exhaustion, Isaiah 40:31 reminds us that “those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength.” Notice the promise is not that we will avoid weariness, but that we will be renewed in it. God meets His people in the heat, not just after it passes.

So during these long summer days, when the air feels still and the pace slows down, let it become a reminder rather than just a complaint. Let it point you back to the One who refreshes the soul. God brings rest to the weary spirit.

The dog days of summer may drain us, but they also invite us to draw nearer to the Lord who’s well never runs dry.
