Submitted by a member at East Hill church of Christ. The following questions were contained in a bulletin from January, 1943.

1. Does your life please God? Do I enjoy living the Christian life?
2. Am I studying my Bible daily? How much time do I spend in real prayer?
3. Have I ever won a soul to Christ? Am I trying to win any soul to Christ?
4. Do I cherish in my heart a feeling of malice or hatred toward any one?
5. Do I estimate the things of time and eternity at their true values?
6. Is there anything I cannot give up for Christ and His cause?
7. How does my life look to those of my neighbors who are not Christians?
8. Where am I making my greatest mistake? What is my greatest fault?
9. Do I place anything before my duties to God as a Christian?
10. Am I honest in my stewardship of the Lord's money?
11. Is the world a better or worse place for my having lived in it?
12. Am I doing anything that I would condemn in others?

Powerful questions that every child of God should consider. Our Master has charged us with taking the "good news" to every creature, in every generation. That solemn charge was not given to just a chosen few, but rather to every saved saint. If you know "what you did" and "why you did it" then you know adequately to talk to others about Christ. via East Hill church of Christ Pulaski, TN

CHURCH OF CHRIST

From the Couch

Fall Series. The elders have invited several speakers to teach about spiritual maturity. Here are the men, dates, and their topics:
9/16 Isaac Bourne (Chapel Hill, TN) What is Christ-like Maturity?
9/23 Thomas Southerland (Water Street) The Book of Hebrews and Maturity
9/30 Fifth Wednesday singing
10/7 William Welch (Clarksburg, TN) Spiritual Maturity & the Spiritual Disciplines
10/14 Nathan Powell (Bellevue) How Paul Helped the Corinthians Become Mature
10/21 Ron Harper (Murfreesboro) Growing in the Christian Graces
10/28 Joe Wilke (White Bluff) Helping Others Reach Maturity

The Bible & Grief. The first recorded human death is in Genesis 4:8 where Cain murdered his brother Abel. On that day, Adam and Even lost both sons since Cain became a fugitive exile and a wanderer. We do not grieve those we never knew, but we grieve over those whom we knew, loved, and lost. The greater our love, the greater our grief.

When Abraham buried his beloved Sarah, he mourned and wept for her (Genesis 23:2). When Job's children were killed by a tornado, his unanswered questions of why compounded his grief. He came to realize that God had been with him the whole time. If you know of someone struggling with grief, let them know that a grief support group meets every Wednesday here from 7-8 pm. See Jay Wilkins for more details.

A week from Saturday on Sept. 12, our youth group will be in Cookeville to participate in Bible Bowl 2026. For months our teens have been studying Genesis 26-50. Moses tells how God began with a couple, Abraham and Sarah, and made from them a nation from whom the Messiah could come and save the world. Our thanks to all who have supported these efforts to teach God's word to others.

Welcome to White Bluff!! We are glad you are here!

Greater Is He

"You are of God, little children... because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world" (1 John 4:4, NKJV). Christians face temptation, false teaching, and discouragement, but we are not left defenseless. God strengthens those who faithfully walk with Him through His revealed truth. The devil is powerful, but he is not greater than our Creator. Stand firm in God's Word, trust His promises, and remember that victory belongs to those who remain faithful to Christ.

"Happiness is found in 3 things:
 Letting go of what was
 Enjoying what is,
 And Having faith in what will be."
 Phil 4:4-7
