Review: Everyone has challenges in life. The tough ones are the problems that seem not to have a solution. There is always a Giant at the Gate that leads to your Destiny. The Giant's purpose is part of the process of preparation for the next season in your life. Facing Giants always stretches your faith and ability to manage stress.

Three things that are needed to defeat the giants in your life.

1. Faithfully serve where God has put you.
2. You need to overcome the fear of:
  - i. The voice of the enemy.
  - ii. Fear of being misunderstood.
  - iii. Fear of being inadequate.

Continuing from Last Sunday: The third fear you need to overcome to defeat your Giant.

A. Overcoming the Fear of being inadequate:

I Samuel 17:29-33 (NLT)

1. The enemy is going to point out your inadequacy.
  - i. What God calls you to do, He enables you to accomplish.

Proverbs 3:5-6 (NLT)

- ii. God can use what you are already familiar with.

I Samuel 17:38-40 (NLT)

- iii. God uses what we have, not what we are missing.

B. Have a Confident Faith in God:

I Samuel 17:41-44 (NLT)

1. When the Giant begins to talk, keep your eyes on the Lord.
2. Faith doesn't deny seriousness of the situation...it sees the reality of the situation and speaks to it.

I Samuel 17:45-47 (NLT)

3. Faith understands: The Battle is the Lord's.

I Samuel 17:48-51 (NLT)

C. David triumphs over Goliath with a sling powered by faith in God.

1. David declared the will of the Lord over the Giant.
2. The power of the prophetic word.
3. Words of Faith vs Words of Fear.

Next Steps; Today I am:

1. Committing my life to Christ.
2. Asking God to help me overcome thoughts inadequacy.
3. Asking God for faith to trust the word of the Lord.
4. Asking God for the ability to speak words of faith.
