Academy of Arts presentation of “No Place to Flee” July 13 and 14

Join us for No Place to Flee, a powerful live drama presented over two evenings: Monday, July 13 at 7 pm at Faith Church of Sellersville, and Tuesday, July 14 at 6:30 pm here at Grace BFC. Set in the 1940s, this moving production follows three courageous men and their families as they risk everything to share hope in the face of persecution. Through hardship and fear, their faith remains steadfast, offering a compelling reminder that light overcomes darkness. Invite your family, friends, and neighbors to this unforgettable evening of encouragement and challenge. Admission is free, though a freewill offering will be received; information handouts are available at the welcome desk. There are some challenging themes so parental discretion is advised.
