A note from the McDermott family:

To our church FAMILY,

Please know how your love has touched our hearts and your prayers have carried us through since Ed had his stroke. God is so good, and His children certainly reflect His goodness. From your cards, calls, and texts, you all have been with us, your concern and LOVE are a blessing that we can barely express. If we haven't told you directly yet, please know how very much we love you and thank the Lord for you.

Thanking the Lord with our whole hearts,

Ed, Kristan, Olivia, Ethan, and Simone McDermott

Special giving towards Christians in Nigeria – Today

The Board of Elders of Grace BFC has approved a $12,000 gift from our missions funds, made possible through the estate of Dennis Fedorowicz, to support persecuted and struggling Christians in Nigeria. Our pastoral assistant, John Haruna, is partnering with Christian Missionary Technical Services (CMTS) to help meet critical needs, including building a school and orphanage. A special offering will be received today, with all gifts going directly to CMTS to supplement the elders' gift. Please prayerfully consider how you can support our brothers and sisters in Christ.
