

Nursery Caregiver – Contract Employee

The Kirk in the Hills Nursery Caregiver is a consistent, caring, nurturing presence who provides care, supervision, and stimulating engagement for infants and young children, typically under five years old, during Sunday morning worship services and programs between 8:30am-12:30pm.

This person works in the nursery room in the Abbey Lounge of Kirk in the Hills and is responsible for the care of infants and children while their parents and caregivers are in worship or participating in other activities at the church. This person understands and respects the children and youth ministry programs at Kirk in the Hills Presbyterian Church. This person understands and respects the culture of the children and youth ministry by seeking to add to its inclusivity and cohesiveness.

This person works well with other adults and has proven experience working with children. This person reports directly to the Director of Children, Youth, and Family Ministries.

This is a W-2, contract position and will provide hourly pay.
