

Ark of the Covenant & Tabernacle Furniture

INSTRUCTIONS

Your child's representation of the tabernacle is a great way to help them consider what they learn as they read What Was the Tabernacle? from the Who What Why series!

1) Print your templates.

Print the template page from the step-by-step instructions on cardstock and cut out the pieces.

Trace the templates onto bronze cardstock for the outer courtyard altar and basin. Use yellow and gold for the High Place and Most High Place furniture.

2) Assemble your outer courtyard altar and basin.

Use a bronze, burgandy, or dark brown pieces to decorate the altar and basin pieces, as shown. Fold the altar along the lines on the template.

4) Assemble your Ark of the Covenant.

Fold the bottom and top of the ark along the lines of the template, as shown.

Glue the wing on the outside of each cherubim.

Fold each side of the bottom of the ark up, and glue the tabs to the inside of the adjoining side. Repeat this with the lid of the ark.

INSTRUCTIONS

Glue the decorative border and circle to the front side of the bottom of the ark.

Cut four equal length rectangles, just a bit longer than the height of the ark. Glue a rectangular support on the inside of each side of the bottom of the ark.

Cut two small rectangular strips and fold a small tab at the end of each one.

INSTRUCTIONS

Glue the long side of each strip to a cherubim.

Glue a cherubim to either side of the top of the ark.

Glue the strip to create a golden jar. Then, glue green leaves behind Aaron's staff.

INSTRUCTIONS

Use permanent markers to decorate the outside of the ark, and the stone tablets of the law.

Display your craft as you read What Was the Tabernacle? as a reminder that God taught us how to worship him, and that he had a plan for salvation that pointed to Jesus from the very beginning!
