Our church family is growing, and we want to be intentional about building stronger relationships as we Love, Equip, and Send. Please

Your feedback will help us better connect, care for another, and grow together as a church family.

The Friendship-Seekers Class

The Friendship-Seekers Class enjoys the community and encouragement that is found among fellow Christians. The class meets at 10:10, between worship services. This group follows a Bible-based study through the Standard Quarterly.
This group is mostly comprised of retirees, but the class would be excited to welcome men and women of any age to connect with their class. In addition to studying the Word of God, the class also is involved in international missions, along with various other projects and needs within our own community.
The leadership of the class rotates, allowing various perspectives during the teaching. If you are looking to grow in your knowledge of Scripture, the Friendship-Seekers class would love to welcome you!
