Easter Sunday

MY REDEEMER LIVES

Easter Sunday Celebration

April 5, 2026 / 10:30 am

Welcome!

Today is a very special day and we are thrilled that you have come to join us. We gather today to celebrate the most significant event in all of history - the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The story of Jesus' resurrection shows us that hope can break into even the darkest places. If Jesus' life had ended at the cross, it would simply be a heartbreaking ending to a good man's story. But we believe something extraordinary happened: after dying, Jesus rose again! And that moment changed everything! The resurrection isn't just an old religious tale—it's a declaration that love is stronger than failure, fear, or the messiness of our lives. Because Jesus is alive, we don't have to earn our worth or prove ourselves. We're invited to have real peace with God.

Leadership for today's worship service is provided by members of the worship teams from College First Church of God. We trust the elements of the service allow you to express your joy and thanksgiving for the reality that Christ arose. We also trust God speaks to you through his word.

Scripture Readings For Today

Job 19:25-27

²⁵I know that my redeemer lives,
and that in the end he will stand on the earth.

²⁶And after my skin has been destroyed,
yet in my flesh I will see God;

²⁷I myself will see him
with my own eyes —I, and not another.
How my heart yearns within me! (NIV)

1 Corinthians 15:20-22

²⁰But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. ²¹For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. ²²For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive. (NIV)

We appreciate the Marathon Center for the Performing Arts for allowing us to celebrate Easter Sunday in such a beautiful facility. However, come next Sunday we will return to our regular places for worship and our regular schedule. College First offers three opportunities each Sunday morning.

Sanctuary Services

9:00 and 11:00 am

1100 North Main Street

Livestreamed via Facebook and YouTube each Sunday

These identical services include a blend of traditional and modern hymns and songs led by our majestic pipe organ and Worship Choir. Nursery and kids' ministry opportunities are available at both services.

Winebrenner Service

10:00 am

950 North Main Street / Winebrenner Auditorium

Livestreamed via Facebook and YouTube each Sunday

The Winebrenner Service provides a meaningful opportunity to worship the Lord in a more contemporary style with songs led by guitars and drums. Nursery and kids' ministry opportunities are available.

Come Back Next Sunday

We hope you can come back and worship with us next Sunday as our Easter celebration continues. Choose to be part of one of our three worship services. Pastor Kirk Schneemann is set to continue in his sermon series, "The Greatest Music Ever Written."

College First is way more than just a Sunday morning experience. Learn more about all College First has to offer by following this link.

Today's Offering

There will be an opportunity to give an offering today as part of our worship service. Ushers will be stationed around the auditorium and will have offering bags where you can place your offering as you exit the service. You can also support our special Easter Offering designated to support Habitat for Humanity here in Findlay. Make sure your offering to support Habitat for Humanity is clearly designated. Please note guests today are not expected to give an offering. We are simply glad you are here to join in our Easter celebration
