Groundwork: God Speaks Judgment and Calls Samuel - When corruption and darkness seem to be in control, it can be hard to hear and see God. Join our Groundwork conversation as we study 1 Samuel 2:12-3:21 to learn from the stories about Israel and Samuel. Together, we'll learn where to look for God and discover hope even when situations in life seem hopelessly unjust and bleak. Listen at GroundworkOnline.com and subscribe to Groundwork's weekly emails for future episodes.

Confession of Faith – Lord's Day 52

Q & A 127 What does the sixth petition mean?

A. "And do not bring us to the time of trial, but rescue us from the evil one" means:

By ourselves we are too weak to hold our own even for a moment. And our sworn enemies— the devil, the world, and our own flesh— never stop attacking us.

And so, Lord, uphold us and make us strong with the strength of your Holy Spirit, so that we may not go down to defeat in this spiritual struggle, but may firmly resist our enemies until we finally win the complete victory.

Q & A 128 What does your conclusion to this prayer mean?

A. For the kingdom and the power and the glory are yours forever" means:

We have made all these petitions of you because, as our all-powerful king, you are both willing and able to give us all that is good; and because your holy name, and not we ourselves, should receive all the praise, forever.

Q & A 129 What does that little word "Amen" express?

A. "Amen" means: This shall truly and surely be! It is even more sure that God listens to my prayer than that I really desire what I pray for.

Guide for Grateful Living – Responsive Reading – The Law

Leader: You shall have no other Gods before me.

People: For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be the glory forever!

Leader: You shall not make for yourself an idol.

People: In Christ we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation.

Leader: You shall not misuse the name of the Lord your God, for the Lord will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.

People: Let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise – the fruit of lips that confess his name.

Leader: Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy. Six days you shall labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God.

People: Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God.

Leader: Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the Lord your God is giving you.

People: Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord.

Leader: You shall not murder.

People: Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.

Leader: You shall not commit adultery.

People: You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your body.

Leader: You shall not steal.

People: He who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing something useful with his hands, so that he may have something to share with those in need.

Leader: You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor.

People: Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into him who is the Head, that is, Christ.

Leader: You shall not covet your neighbor's house or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

People: I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances.

Come, Let Us Worship

Prelude

* Call to Worship

Leader: I am your God; you are my people.

We bless and thank you, Lord our God, for the promise you spoke to Noah:

“I establish my covenant with you: Never again will all life be destroyed by the waters of the flood.”

We bless and thank you, Lord our God, for the promise you spoke to Abraham and Sarah:

“I will establish my covenant as an everlasting covenant between me and you and your descendants after you for the generations to come, to be your God and the God of your descendants after you.”

We bless and thank you, Lord our God, for the promise you spoke to Moses and the people of Israel.

“If you obey me fully and keep my covenant, when you will be my treasured possession. You will be for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.”

We bless and thank you, Lord our God, for the promise you spoke to David.

“I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, your own flesh and blood, and I will establish the throng of his kingdom forever.”

We bless and thank you, Lord our God, for the promise you spoke through Jeremiah.

“This is my covenant I will make with the people of Israel: I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be there God, and they will be my people.”

We bless and thank you, Lord our God, for the promise you spoke through Jesus.

“This is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.”

Heirs of the promise, called by your Spirit, we hear again these gracious promises. With joy and trust we declare:

You are our God; we are your people.

Q & A 62 Why can't our good works be our righteousness before God, or at least a part of our righteousness?

A. Because the righteousness which can pass God's judgment must be entirely perfect and must in every way measure up to the divine law. But even our best works in this life are imperfect and stained with sin.

Q & A 63 How can our good works be said to merit nothing when God promises to reward them in this life and the next?

A. This reward is not earned; it is a gift of grace.

Q & A 64 But doesn't this teaching make people indifferent and wicked?

A. No. It is impossible for those grafted into Christ through true faith not to produce fruits of gratitude.

* God's Benediction

* Doxology: (LUYH #959) PH #635 "Glory Be to the Father"
