Reset 2023 Reflection Questions 01/08/2023

1. When have you needed a “do over” or a “reset” in life?
2. Lasting change does not come from continual resets but from dealing with foundational issues. We saw a vivid example of the need for a solid foundation with the Millennium Tower building in San Francisco. What are some things that our current culture encourages building our lives upon?
3. Review the four points made in the message from the life of Josiah. The points were: “Reset your new year...”
 - In the secret place (privately seeking God)
 - In the Word of God (having a Bible reading plan)
 - In community (joining a connect group)
 - In the New Covenant (a renewed response to God’s promises)Which of these come more natural to you and which are more of a challenge?
4. Philippians 2:13 states that “God is working in you, giving you the desire and the power to do what pleases Him.” What is our responsibility as God works in our lives?
5. Wellspring is joining together in January for a time of seeking God. Which of these four aspects will you utilize to help you “reset”?
 - Read the Reset book
 - Participate in the 21-day fast
 - Attend Thursday night prayer
 - Attend Encounter night (Wed. Jan 25)
6. Were you surprised to read in 2 Chronicles 34:14 that the Hebrew Scriptures had been buried away in the temple for years under idolatry and paganism?
7. Jesus tells a parable about building our lives upon bedrock in Matthew 7:24-27. What will you build your life upon in 2023?
