“Who is my neighbor” & “Who is my brother” 3/5/2023

1. In Luke 10, which tells the parable of the Good Samaritan, what do you think was the lawyer’s motive to ask Jesus: “Who is my neighbor?”
2. In the historical time of Jesus, what was the conflict and prejudice between the Jews and the Samaritans?
3. Has someone you have known or worked with for a while ever been surprised to find out that you are a Christian?
4. In Matthew 12, Jesus stated that the one “who does the will of God is my mother and sister and brother.” Have you struggled more with putting your natural family before your Kingdom of God family or struggled more to make time for your natural family, while you serve the church.”
5. When has loyalty to natural aspects of your identity taken priority over your identity as a child of God?
6. Three issues were highlighted that bring division in church:
 1. Politics
 2. Race
 3. Denominations (or church affiliation)Have you ever found yourself divided with another Christian over one of these issues?
7. Did you agree with the statement: “If someone offends you, it is their fault the first time, but it is your fault if they continue to offend you, because you have not talked with them about it?”
