Warren Groves "Hope" Reflection Questions 11/1/2026

1. What does "contending from a place of contentment" mean to you?
   How is contentment different from giving up?

2. The speaker described a time when disappointment over unanswered prayer challenged his hope. When have you experienced something similar, and how did you respond?

3. How would you pray differently about a current situation, if your highest hope were to see Christ formed in you?

4. Romans 8 connects being "more than conquerors" with God's unfailing love. How does this shape your understanding of victory when a problem remains unresolved?

5. The sermon challenged us to approach church as participants. What could you do to encourage others and contribute to the life of our church community?

6. Read James 1:2–4. Why is rejoicing in trials difficult? How can we recognize their potential to produce maturity while honestly acknowledging our pain?

7. When have you focused so much on what God hasn't done that you overlooked what He was doing? How might gratitude help shift your perspective?

8. The speaker described different responses to trials: rebuking, resisting, withdrawing, and enduring. How can we seek the Holy Spirit's wisdom about the right response?

9. The sermon encouraged us to recognize emotional patterns that can leave us vulnerable to temptation. What helps you respond to loneliness, rejection, or anger in a healthy, godly way?

10. What is the difference between simply surviving a difficult season and thriving while enduring it? What might it look like to thrive in your present circumstances?

11. Read Psalm 23:5. What would it look like to receive God's peace, comfort, and provision "in the presence of your enemies," before your circumstances change?

12. In a situation you are currently facing, what would it look like this week to keep praying for breakthrough while welcoming the work Jesus wants to do within you?
