REVELATIONS 21:22-26

The Quest: The Reflection

Pastor Kristin Hansen

Can you imagine a place where you never have to look for the light switch? That's the picture John gives us in Revelation 21. No temple, no sun, no moon — because God's own glory lights up the whole city, and the Lamb is the lamp.

Handle that image like fine china for a moment: a world where nothing stands between us and God's presence, not even a building we'd need to walk into. The gates never close. There's no night, no reason to fear, no reason to lock the door.

Every nation, every sibling from every corner of creation, walks in that same light together, bringing whatever glory and honor they carry into a place where it's finally, fully welcomed. You are enough. You are loved by God just the way you are — and one day, we'll all live in a place where that love is the only light we need, shining bright enough for everyone.

The City without a Temple

In a book filled with important visions, the final vision depicts the new heaven and the new earth in the form of a temple-city. The book of Revelation was written to provide hope to suffering Christians in the church age and its persecutions. The final and greatest hope for every believer is the eternal glory awaiting us in Christ.

Your Group Has Something to Share!

As we get ready to move into the winter schedule, there is a lot happening at Lakeview—and we want to make sure everyone knows about it!

If your group, committee, class, ministry, or activity has something to share in the upcoming Lakeviewer, please send your article or information by August 27th. This is a great opportunity to let others know what your group is doing, invite new people to participate, and help our church family discover all the ways to connect at Lakeview.

From classes and Bible studies to fellowship, service opportunities, special events, and everything in between, there really is something for everyone. If you have something happening, let us know so we can help spread the word!

As we head into the busier winter season, let's make sure no one misses out on the many opportunities to connect, grow, serve, and have a little fun together at Lakeview.

Don't miss your chance to get the word out—submit your article by August 27th!

Life Can Be a Lot. You Don't Have to Face It Alone.

There are times in all our lives when we could use someone to listen, someone who cares, and someone who will simply walk alongside us. That's what Stephen Ministry is all about.

Stephen Ministers are trained members of the Lakeview family who provide caring, confidential, one-to-one Christian support during life's difficult seasons. Whether you are facing grief, loneliness, a major life change, family concerns, or simply need someone to talk with, a Stephen Minister is ready to listen and walk with you.

This ministry is one of the ways Lakeview lives out the commitment to caring for the mind, body, and soul. And sometimes, caring begins with something as simple as sitting down and listening.

You don't have to walk alone. If you or someone you know could use a caring, confidential listening ear, reach out to Lakeview's Stephen Ministers.

There's More Waiting for You at Lakeview!

Church is about more than attending worship—it's about connecting, building friendships, growing in faith, and serving together. With classes, groups, ministries, fellowship events, and opportunities to serve, there are plenty of ways to get involved.

You don't have to know exactly where you belong. Take a step, try something new, and see where it leads.

Find your people. Find your place. Be part of Lakeview!

You Don't Have to Care Alone

Caring for someone you love can be one of life's most meaningful—and most challenging—journeys. Some days bring joy and gratitude. Other days can leave you tired, overwhelmed, or simply wondering if anyone else understands. That's why having people to walk alongside you matters.

Lakeview's Caregiver Support Group offers a welcoming place to pause, breathe, share, and connect with others who understand the realities of caregiving. It's a chance to talk openly, learn from one another, find encouragement, and discover that you don't have to navigate every challenge by yourself.

Whether you're caring for a spouse, parent, family member, or close friend, you have a place here.

The group meets Wednesdays at 10:00 a.m. in the Conference Room.

Come as you are. Bring your questions, your stories, or simply yourself. There is strength in sharing the journey—and sometimes knowing someone else understands can make all the difference.

Your Generosity Changes Everything

When you give, you're saying "yes" to God's invitation to be part of something beautiful. Your gift today keeps our ministry strong, our mission moving forward, and our community thriving. Start now and experience the unexpected joy that comes from giving with a full heart.

STRAWBERRY MILKSHAKE PIE

I've made a lot of no-bake desserts in my time, and this is easily one of the top 5 pies I've ever made. It tastes just like a melted strawberry milkshake, in the absolute best way possible. A shortbread cookie crust supports the creamy, strawberry-studded filling, and a homemade whipped cream completes the milkshake look.
