Prayer of Confession and Assurance of Pardon

Loving God, You created all things, from the soil of the earth to the clouds of the heavens. You made all things and call them "good", even us! You invite us to steward Your creation with care and respect, serving You through our effort and attention. But we lose track of our role as stewards of Your good gifts. We begin to see Your creation as our personal playground, building fences to keep others out, and claiming ownership of things that cannot be owned. Instead of serving with humility, we become entitled and selfish, keeping more and more for our own benefit. Re-orient us, O Lord. Remind us that all good gifts are a blessing from You to be shared with the world. Hear us now as we open our hearts to You...
