Our Founders and Overseers

Drs. Claude & Regina Harris

Dr. Claude Lamar Harris, Sr. hails from Augusta, Georgia. He received his formal education and graduated from the Immaculate Conception Academy in Augusta.

Dr. Harris attended Paine College, majoring in Mathematics. While serving in the U.S. Air Force, he was the only honor graduate in his communications course at the Keesler Technical Training Center, Mississippi. He earned a degree in Nuclear Engineering Technology from Aiken Technical College in South Carolina. He also received various certificates from the Charles Harrison Mason Theological Seminary, I.T.C. in Atlanta, Georgia.

In 1996, Dr. Harris received a Certificate of Training from the Department of the Army for completing a seminar on Parish Pastoral Counseling. In 2012, he received a Certificate of Appreciation from the Georgia House of Representatives for invoking the divine guidance of God to assist its members in the performance of their duties as lawmakers. In May 2021, he successfully completed Harvard University's Christianity Through Its Scriptures course of study. In May 2023, he received his Honorary Doctorate Degree of Theology from FMI Biblical Studies & Seminary.

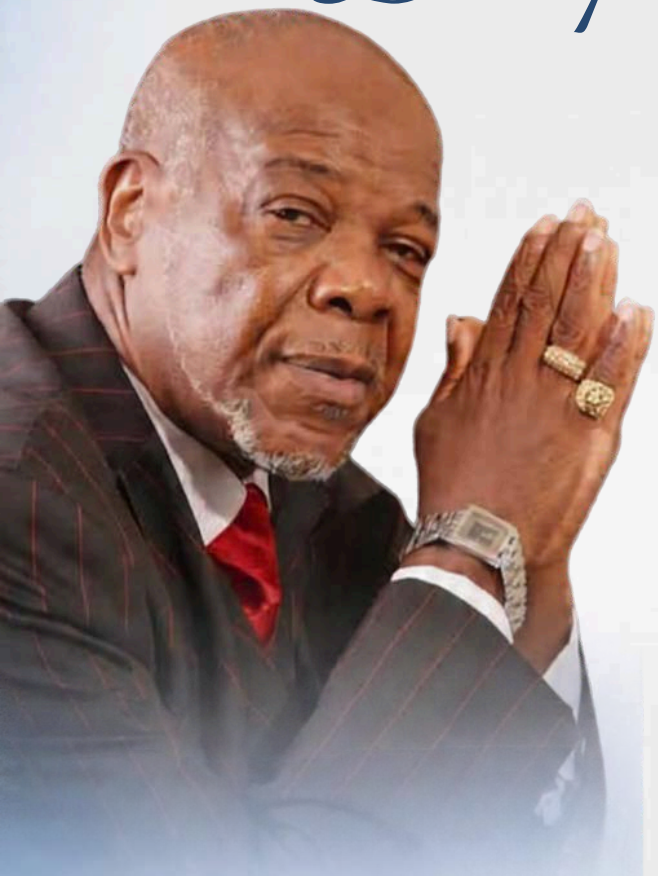

Dr. Regina T. Harris is a powerful Christian leader dedicated to the work of the Lord Jesus Christ and fervent concerning the establishment of a strong Local Church that effectively brings souls into the Kingdom. She works tirelessly to develop structure and programs to nurture and disciple people and develop strong Christian leaders.

She is a passionate Kingdom leader, preacher, teacher, trainer, psalmist, and visionarian. Dr. Regina is the progenitor of the “Annual Prophetic Conference” (formerly known as the “Daughters of Deborah Conference”) and the Co-host of the “Power In The Spirit Conference.” All of these conferences were used as vehicles for transformation, inspiration and empowerment.

In May 2023, Pastor Regina received her Honorary Doctorate Degree in Pastoral Counseling from FMI Biblical Studies & Seminary. She attended public schools in New Britain, Connecticut; and the Hartford Conservatory of Music in Hartford, Connecticut; and Augusta College (presently Augusta University) in Augusta, Georgia.

About The Speaker

Bishop Howard Franklin

Bishop Howard Franklin is the Pastor of Word Alive Christian Center, and the founder of the organization Independent Churches United. (I.C.U.) which began in 2013.

He is married to Lady Mary Franklin, and he is the father of two children, Neva Jo and Matthew Dajuan, and two grandchildrenen, Dewayne and Demetrius.

Bishop Franklin's educational background includes a Bachelor's Degree in Christian Education from Beulah Heights Bible College (University) in Atlanta Georgia in 1986. Bishop Franklin served in the United States Army in which he retired in March 1983 after twenty years of service.

Bishop Franklin's many years of pastoring and serving in the ministry has equipped him with the experience, passion and vision to lead Word Alive Christian Center to another level of ministry, worship and living. Word Alive is a church that continues to grow, striving to take the gospel of Jesus Christ to the world and reaching those who are in need of a message of hope and love.

He is always ready to impart to leaders and congregations the wisdom, insight, and revelation which God has given him. His daily prayer is that God will continue to lead, guide, and strengthen him as he goes forward in this life to be a blessing and make an impact wherever he goes. There have been many lives saved under this ministry and leadership of Bishop Franklin and it continues to branch out to reach beyond its borders as other ministries are being brought forth and established. He established I.C.U. (Indepdendent Churches United) on May 24, 2013.
