Elder Danielle Harris

West Initiative Pastor

Danielle Harris is a pastor, author, public relations expert, and President of The Preaching Executive, a ministry consulting firm that helps ministry leaders thrive in and out of the pulpit with effective communication strategies and pastoral coaching.

Danielle serves as one of the campus pastors for the New Life Worship Center in Hephzibah, Ga., and she is a Lecturer at Augusta University. She earned her master's degree in Educational Leadership from Augusta University, received a certification in Leadership Communications from Harvard Extension School at Harvard University, and a Personal Development Coach Certificate from the Coaching and Positive Psychology Institute, an affiliate of the International Coach Federation. She is currently a doctoral candidate at Liberty University pursuing a Ph.D. in Communication.

Elder Donald Walker Sr.

West Initiative Pastor

Donald Walker was born to Milton and Nettie Walker in Barnesville Georgia, a small town 40 minutes south of Atlanta. He is number six of seven children. He is married to Betty Walker and together they have three children and a grandson.

After accepting Christ as Lord and Savior, God sent him to New Life Worship Center in Augusta, Georgia and placed him in the hands of Pastors Claude and Regina T. Harris, an Apostle and Prophet, who have equipped and developed him for 35 years to face life challenges. He was licensed as a minister in the Church of God in Christ at the age of 26 and ordained at 29. He has served in many capacities in the church and has spoken at conferences and revivals and taught workshops and seminars. He is an anointed speaker who teaches and preaches under a prophetic mantle. In 2006, he graduated from the School of the Prophets.

He received his formal education from Georgia Military and Kerr Business College. When he is not conducting Kingdom business, he works for the Department of Agriculture, U.S. Forest Service as a Deputy Forest Manager.

About the Preacher...Reverend Karlton Howard

KARLTON L. HOWARD is the son of the late Henry L Howard and Thelma Jones Howard of Augusta, Georgia. He was educated in the public school system of Augusta, Georgia graduating from the Lucy C. Laney High School. He obtained his Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration from LaGrange College in LaGrange Georgia. He received his certificate in Theology from the Augusta extension of American Baptist Theological Seminary. Karlton furthered his studies at Columbia International University in Columbia, South Carolina in the Masters of Divinity program. In November 1995 the Green Grove Baptist Church, under the leadership of the Reverend Lessel Leonard, licensed Karlton into the gospel-preaching ministry. He was ordained into the gospel ministry in January of 1997 and installed as pastor of the Noah's Ark Missionary Baptist Church in Keysville, Georgia in March 1997. He is in his twentieth year of pastoring at the church affectionately known as "The Ark." God has guided the church to grow spiritually and to relocate to a 10,000 square foot building on 13 acres in Keysville, Georgia.

After college Karlton worked as a procurement specialist for the CSRA Business League in Augusta. Prior to being called into the ministry, Karlton played a vital role in the Howard family business operations that included Howard's Upholstery, Uniforms Unlimited, and Uph'ward Promotions.

KARLTON L. HOWARD has been affiliated with many religious, civic, and social organizations. He has served on the Advisory Board for Senior Citizens Council on Aging; he served on the Board of Directors for Burke County Partnership/Communities in Schools; he serves on the Augusta Aviation Commission having held the positions of Chairman and Co-Chairman; at Green Grove he held the position of Director of Christian Education, served as Chairman of Deacons ministry, Revival Coordinator, and Men's Sunday school teacher. Karlton is the past moderator of Noah Ebenezer Central Baptist Association; he is a member of the Augusta Baptist Ministers Conference having served as treasurer; he has served as Vice President for the Tenth District of Georgia's Congress on Christian Education. Karlton presently serves as president of the Tenth District Convention of the General Missionary Baptist Convention. He is also a member of the Hampton's Ministers Conference. Karlton is instructor for the Augusta Baptist Seminary an extension of the American Baptist College where classes are held at Noah's Ark Missionary Baptist Church.

He is the executive producer/host of "The Parade of Quartets," those airs on ABC affiliate WJBF TV in Augusta Georgia. The Parade of Quartets is the recipient of the Georgia Association of Broadcaster's 2013 Lifetime Achievement Award for over 60 years of broadcasting. The program has been designated as the longest continuous running gospel program in Georgia and possible in the United States.

KARLTON L HOWARD is married to Dianne Abrams Howard. They are the proud parents of a daughter, Shontay and two sons, Keith and Julius. They also have eight grandchildren.
