

Calling All Storytellers: Help People Engage

Are you a creative communicator who loves helping people connect, understand, and engage? LifePoint Church is looking for a Communications Coordinator who can bring clarity, consistency, and creativity to the way we tell our story and support ministry.

Who We Are

We are a vibrant, gospel-centered church community located in a strategic mission field. With over 100,000 people in our immediate vicinity, the opportunity for impact is massive. Our church is committed to helping people connect with Christ, grow in faith, and go in service to others. Communication helps create a welcoming first impression and makes engagement in our mission clear.

The Opportunity

As our Communication Coordinator, you will help LifePoint Church communicate with excellence by:

- Telling the Story: Supporting clear, engaging communication that reflects LifePoint Church's mission, vision, values, and culture.
- Create Consistency: Coordinating messaging and branding across digital, print, social media, website and worship-service communication.
- Supporting Ministry: Partnering with ministry leaders to develop communication plans, timelines and promotional materials for ministries and events.
- Building a Team: Recruiting, training, and developing volunteers who contribute through writing, design, photography, video, and social media.

If You Are...

- A clear and thoughtful communicator who can turn ideas into messages people understand.
- A creative collaborator who enjoys partnering with ministry leaders and volunteers.
- Organized and able to manage multiple communication needs, timelines, and priorities.

- Committed to the local church and passionate about using communication to help people connect with Jesus.

...then we want to meet you.

Join Our Team

This is more than managing communication channels—it's an opportunity to shape how people experience LifePoint before they ever walk through the doors and to help our church communicate the Gospel, ministry events, and next steps with clarity. If you are ready to bring your creativity, organization, and communication skills to a team that cares deeply about people and ministry, we'd love to start a conversation.

Apply today and help us tell the story of what God is doing through LifePoint Church.
