"'Tis Midnight; and on Olive's Brow"

*'Tis midnight; and on Olive's brow
the star is dimmed that lately shone:
'tis midnight; in the garden now the suff'ring Savior prays alone.*

*'Tis midnight; and, from all removed,
Emmanuel wrestles lone with fears:
e'en the disciple that he loved heeds not his Master's grief and tears.*

*'Tis midnight; and, for others' guilt,
the Man of Sorrows weeps in blood:
yet he that hath in anguish knelt is not forsaken by his God.*

*'Tis midnight; from the heav'nly plains is borne the song that angels know:
unheard by mortals are the strains that sweetly soothe the Savior's woe.*
