What You Say:*Before the Activity:

"Hello, hello, friends! Come sit at the table with me and let's make a cactus plant with your handprints!"

Glue them onto your handprint to make flowers. (Pause.) Beautiful!

Did you know some cactus plants grow pretty flowers? They do! But cactus plants can also feel prickly and pokey!

Now take your popsicle stick, dip the end into the stamp pad, and stamp it on your handprint like this. (Demonstrate.) Great work! Let's clean our hands and let our cactus plants dry."

"On day three, God made the land and the seas. Then God made plants, grass, trees, and flowers grow all over the earth! God made everything so beautiful and creative!

Let's review together!

On day one, God made light.

On day two, God made the sky.

On day three, God made land, plants, and seas.

God made everything!

When you see trees, grass, flowers, and plants, you can say, 'Wow! God made everything!'

Who made everything?

[Bottom Line] God made everything!"
