Overflowing Celebration | Made to Move Uses Minimal Supplies

What You Need

Small plastic buckets or bins	1
Large pom-poms	Several

What You Do:

Before the Activity: Encourage the children to stand in a straight line, one behind the other. Give each child a bucket/bin.

Fill the first child's bucket with pom-poms. Encourage the first child to lift their bucket of pom-poms over their head and pour them out for the child behind them to catch. Then that child will lift their bucket over their head until the pom-poms make it to the last child. The goal is to get as many pom-poms as possible into the last bucket.

After the Activity: Introduce the Bible Story.

What You Say:

Before the Activity: "Friends, come line up over here. Today we are playing a game called the Overflowing Celebration. We are going to pass this happy celebration all the way down our line!"

During the Activity: "Here is the plan. Hold your bucket with both hands. I'm going to pour all these pom-poms into [first child's name]'s bucket like this. (Demonstrate.) Then [child's name] is going to lift their bucket over their head and pour the pom-poms backward into [next child's name]'s bucket!

Ready? To play? One, two, three, pour! (Pause.) Wow! You caught them! Now, [next child's name], pour them over your head so [third child's name] can catch them! (Continue coaching the children until the pom-poms get to the end of the line.) Everyone, come look at this last bucket! We lost some pom-poms along the way, but there is still enough to celebrate with! Let's show how we celebrate God! On the count of three, grab a handful and let's toss them up in the air like happy confetti! One, two, three... celebrate! (Toss the pom-poms.) Hooray! Now let's collect all the pom-poms so we can play again. (Repeat as time and interest allow.)"

After the Activity: "That was so much fun! We passed the celebration all the way to the end, and then we had a big party! Today, in our true story from the Bible, we will learn that we can celebrate God with our friends like that every single day!"

King David Parade Float | Made to Create

What You Need

"King David Parade Float" Activity Page	1
"King David Parade Label" Activity Page	1
Desert-sized paper plates in a variety of colors	Several
Jumbo craft sticks	Several
Crayons or washable markers	Several
Glue sticks	1

What You Do:

Before the Activity: Print "King David Parade Float" on cardstock and cut, one set per child and leader. Print "King David Parade Label" on label paper, one label per child and leader. Create an example. Write each child's name on their craft stick.

Encourage children to color their cutouts. Ask children to pick a plate color then tape a craft stick to the back. Help children as needed, attaching the pieces of David to their plate. Ask children to add their label to their plate. Review the story with them.

After the Activity: Connect the Bottom Line to the Bible Story.

What You Say:

Before the Activity: "Come sit with me at the table! In our Bible Story today, King David held a giant parade to celebrate bringing the special golden box back home. Let's make a special parade puppet that looks like a giant balloon parade float!"

During the Activity: "First, let's color the pieces of King David. (Allow time to color.) Great! Now pick a paper plate to be our balloon float body! (Pause. Tape a craft stick to the back of each child's paper plate.) Now, glue King David's head, crown, and his arms to your plate. You can use my parade float as a guide. (Help children glue/tape their pieces on as needed.) Excellent! You made a King David parade float! (Demonstrate holding it by the craft stick handle and marching it around.) You can make him wave and dance in the air!"

After the Activity: "Your parade floats look so happy and colorful! You can take them home to show your family how King David danced and celebrated God with all his might. We can dance and celebrate God with all our might too! Who can celebrate God? [Bottom Line] I can celebrate God."
