Greeting & Prayer

What You Do:

Pray for your group before they arrive → Pray for kids who will visit your group for the first time. Thank God that His love is for the whole world, and that includes you and every person you will ever meet. Recall an age-appropriate story about a time you were confused about God, and He met you in your questions. Ask God to help the kids in your group understand that “the whole world” means everyone. Pray they would know God loves them, He loves their family, He loves their friends, and He loves the new person at school.

- Choose a child to spin the wheel.
- Each color matches a prayer prompt on the chart.
- After spinning, the child finds the matching prompt, reads it, and prays.
- Let a few more children take turns spinning the wheel and praying.

What You Say:

“Prayer is how we talk with God, our loving Father. The Bible tells us to pray without ceasing—talking to Him anytime, anywhere. Whatever you do, begin with prayer. When you do, you can trust that God is in control and working in every situation.”

K1 - Remove the Tears

What You Need

 Bible	1
 Blue paper plates	24
 Permanent marker	1

What You Do:

Before the Activity:

- Draw a sad face with a tear on the blue side of each plate.
- On the back side of each plate, draw a big happy face.
- Scatter the plates all over the floor with the sad side facing up.

During the Activity:

- Open your Bible and read Revelation 21:3-5 out loud to the kids.
- Share the following points:
  - This is your future that's coming!
  - God is going to move His home, heaven, down to earth, and we will live with Him forever!
  - There will be no more sadness, crying, or pain in our forever home.
  - God's going to fix everything that's broken to make it new!
- Tell the kids that today's Bible Story says that one day, in our forever home, God will wipe away every tear. There will be no more sadness.
- Give each child two blue paper plates. Ask them to draw a smiley face on the blue side of each plate and a sad face on the back. Then, have them decorate the smiley side with stickers, googly eyes, and Wikki Stix.
- Ask the kids to write down their name on their paper plates.

Explain the game:

- Spread out all the paper plates the kids created with sad faces showing.
- "This room is full of sad tears! Let's get rid of them. When I say, 'Go!' your job is to race around and flip over all the plates so that only the happy faces are showing."
- Say "Go!" and let the kids race to flip all the plates.
- Cheer them on as they work together to "remove the tears."

What You Say:

"You did it! Look! All the sadness is gone, and now we only see happy faces. This is what the Bible promises our forever home with God will be like. No more crying, no more being sad or hurt. It's the best promise ever, and it gives us hope to keep going.

"If you're going through something hard, ask God for help. He will go with you every step of the way. And then let your future with God, that's going to be so good, help you get through the hard things now! We know that [Bottom Line] God will make everything right in the end."

Monthly Bible Verse Challenge

What You Do:

- Have all the kids recite the memory verse out loud together several times.
- Explain that this practice helps everyone learn and feel more confident.
- Ask the kids to raise their hands if they want to try saying the verse on their own.
- Invite one child at a time to come up to the Memory Verse Challenge Spot.
- When a child recites the verse, let them choose a prize from the prize box!
- Please tell the kids if they're not ready this time, that's okay---you can always try again next month!
