- Let kids decorate the coins with crayons or dot markers.
- As they color, retell the story of the lost coin.
- When finished, help kids place their story coins inside the paper bag.

After the Activity:

- Review the Bible story together.
- Remind kids that the woman was very happy when she found her lost coin.
- Connect the Bottom Line: God loves us and is happy when we come to Him.

What You Say:

Before the Activity

"Come sit at the table, friends! Today we're going to make special story coins to help us remember our Bible story!"

During the Activity

"Here are your story coins. Let's color them! Great job!"

This coin shows the woman who had ten coins. But one of her coins was lost. Oh no!

The woman looked everywhere for her lost coin. She searched and searched.

She even swept her whole house to find it.

Look! She found her coin! She was so happy!

Now let's put all of our story coins into our special bag."

After the Activity

"You can take your story coins home and use them to remember today's Bible story.

Just like the woman was happy when she found her lost coin, God loves you and is happy when you come to Him.
