+ 2024 Annual Faith + Work Conference | Called: Pursuing God's Purpose for Your Work

Many of us come to Los Angeles with hopes for unique career aspirations, landing dream jobs, and living out our passions and giftings. However, discovering one's true sense of calling in life and work can be a great challenge for many Angelenos. Our diverse lifestyles, education, socioeconomic backgrounds, communities, and the culture at large all greatly shape our longings for identity, meaning, and vocational fulfillment.

This year's Annual Faith + Work Conference will challenge common myths about our God-given callings and reestablish the foundational priorities that inform these callings. Acclaimed national thought leaders and local practitioners will help us evaluate where we are in our journeys and how to apply these lessons in all of life and work.
