Chapter Nine: Life With Love

1. Would you say that your life is "driven" by love? In what way? What else are you prone to be "driven" by?
2. Read 1 Corinthians 13. Why does Paul say that love "never ends"? Read the author's thoughts about this on pages 166-167. Can you share your thoughts as well?
3. Read the second paragraph on page 168 beginning with the words, "If we return ...". Please discuss his analogy and add your own thoughts, comments, and ideas. I personally love the picture this paints in my head. Do you? If not, why?
4. Try to evaluate the "posture" in which you spend the most time. Has the Holy Spirit revealed any changes or adjustments He'd like to help you make?
5. How has this book, the discussions, and your time with the Lord caused you to grow in your faith?
6. Read the author's Appendix on pages 175-184. He suggested different forms of prayer that have personally helped him to grow in the way he relates to God. Would you like to try any of the things he suggested? Do you have any additional ideas or thoughts you'd like to share with the group?

Thank you all for participating with us the last ten weeks. My desire for this study was that we learn more about who our God is, how He loves, and how we can best relate to Him and experience deep communion With Him. I pray that our relationship with Him has deepened and, as the author said, "That we learned to treasure, unite with, and experience God in a way that allowed faith, hope, and love to flourish in our lives."
