

After the Moment Passes | Leviticus 27:1-8

Study Questions

Before answering these questions, take some time to read the passage from the sermon together or on your own.

What did this sermon tell us about God?

What did this sermon tell us about us as people?

What did you hear in this sermon that applied the most to your own life?

Where is there currently a gap between something you sincerely intend - or have repeatedly said you want to do - and what you are actually practicing? What is one concrete step of faithfulness you can take this week, and who could help you follow through?

Think about a righteous commitment that has become more costly than you expected. How have you been tempted to renegotiate it or substitute something easier? What would faithful follow-through look like now?

How does God's faithfulness in Jesus change the way you respond to your own inconsistency? Instead of making another dramatic promise, what would it look like to receive his grace and take the next faithful step already in front of you?
