Then one of the Pharisees invited him to eat with him. He entered the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table. And a woman in the town who was a sinner found out that Jesus was reclining at the table in the Pharisee's house.

Luke 7:36–37 CSB

We are all invited to Jesus' table.

When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, “This man, if he were a prophet, would know who and what kind of woman this is who is touching him—she’s a sinner!”

Luke 7:39 CSB

Then he said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

Luke 7:48 CSB

Those who were at the table with him began to say among themselves, "Who is this man who even forgives sins?"

Luke 7:49 CSB

We are all invited to Jesus' table,
but only the forgiven know how to sit there.

Jesus replied to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." He said, "Say it, teacher." "A creditor had two debtors. One owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. Since they could not pay it back, he graciously forgave them both. So, which of them will love him more?" Simon answered, "I suppose the one he forgave more." "You have judged correctly," he told him."

Luke 7:40–43 CSB

“Therefore I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven; that’s why she loved much. But the one who is forgiven little, loves little.”

Luke 7:47 CSB

Turning to the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she, with her tears, has washed my feet and wiped them with her hair. You gave me no kiss, but she hasn't stopped kissing my feet since I came in. You didn't anoint my head with olive oil, but she has anointed my feet with perfume.
