Holiness In Action

Leviticus 19:1-8, 17-18

"Love your neighbor as yourself"

- Jesus

He said to him, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and most important command. The second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself. All the Law and the Prophets depend on these two commands.”

Matthew 22:37–40 CSB

“When you reap the harvest of your land, you are not to reap to the very edge of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest.”

Leviticus 19:9 CSB

“Each of you is to respect his mother and father. You are to keep my Sabbaths; I am the LORD your God. Do not turn to worthless idols or make cast images of gods for yourselves; I am the LORD your God.

“When you offer a fellowship sacrifice to the LORD, sacrifice it so that you may be accepted. It is to be eaten on the day you sacrifice it or on the next day, but what remains on the third day must be burned.”

Leviticus 19:3–6 CSB

“You are to keep my statutes. Do not crossbreed two different kinds of your livestock, sow your fields with two kinds of seed, or put on a garment made of two kinds of material.”

Leviticus 19:19 CSB

“Do not curse the deaf or put a stumbling block in front of the blind, but you are to fear your God; I am the LORD.”

Leviticus 19:14 CSB

“Do not harbor hatred against your brother. Rebuke your neighbor directly, and you will not incur guilt because of him.”

Leviticus 19:17 CSB

“When an alien resides with you in your land, you must not oppress him. You will regard the alien who resides with you as the native-born among you. You are to love him as yourself, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.”

Leviticus 19:33–34 CSB

“When you reap the harvest of your land, you are not to reap to the very edge of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. Do not strip your vineyard bare or gather its fallen grapes. Leave them for the poor and the resident alien; I am the LORD your God.”

Leviticus 19:9-10 CSB

Holiness looks like generosity.

“Do not steal. Do not act deceptively or lie to one another. Do not swear falsely by my name, profaning the name of your God; I am the LORD.”

Leviticus 19:11–12 CSB

“Do not be unfair in measurements of length, weight, or volume. You are to have honest balances, honest weights, an honest dry measure, and an honest liquid measure; I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.”

Leviticus 19:35–36 CSB

Holiness looks like honesty.

“Do not act unjustly when deciding a case. Do not be partial to the poor or give preference to the rich; judge your neighbor fairly.”

Leviticus 19:15 CSB

“You are to rise in the presence of the elderly and honor the old. Fear your God; I am the LORD.”

Leviticus 19:32 CSB

Holiness does not play favorites.

“Do not harbor hatred against your brother. Rebuke your neighbor directly, and you will not incur guilt because of him. Do not take revenge or bear a grudge against members of your community, but love your neighbor as yourself; I am the LORD.”

Leviticus 19:17–18 CSB

“Do not harbor hatred against your brother. Rebuke your neighbor directly, and you will not incur guilt because of him. Do not take revenge or bear a grudge against members of your community, but love your neighbor as yourself; I am the LORD.”

Leviticus 19:17–18 CSB

Holiness looks like love.

Holiness looks like:
