Holy Communion

Redeemer Lutheran Church believes The Lord's Supper is not necessarily courtesy but a ministry. In love, we want everyone who takes Communion to receive its full benefit. St. Paul writes in 1 Corinthians 11:27-29, "Anyone who eats and drinks without recognizing the Body (and Blood) eats and drinks judgment on himself." So, by love and heartfelt conviction, on the basis of God's Word, we must follow Christ's command. It would not be loving to allow spiritual harm to come to someone who does not know, believe, or understand the teachings of the Bible in regard to the "real presence of Christ's Body and Blood. So we lovingly and respectfully ask guests and visitors, who do not hold membership in a congregation of the LCMS, to talk to the pastor before or after the worship hour about their desire to take Communion. If you cannot locate the pastor, one of the elders will be able to assist you.

In the tray of individual cups, the pink wine is a non-alcoholic wine, and gluten free wafers are available upon request.

PRAY FOR Ashley Lehr

Deaconess Intern

Serving the Lord in Puerto Rico

Ashley Lehr serves the Lord through The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS) in Puerto Rico, based in Mayaguez. As a deaconess intern, Ashley teaches women and children and assists in ongoing evangelism and outreach activities. She also connects, equips and organizes local and international volunteers for service to Christ both on and off the island of Puerto Rico. These relationships of service and love create opportunities for sharing the Good News of Jesus in word and deed, as well as for forming a church body that is known for serving its communities.

Ashley's hometown is Appleton, Wis., where her home congregation, Faith Lutheran Church, is located. She received a bachelor's degree in social work, with a minor in communication, from Concordia College, Moorhead, Minn. During her undergraduate studies, she worked as a nanny, as a student manager in dining services and as a peer minister at Our Redeemer Lutheran Church, Moorhead. She is currently studying at Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Ind., pursuing an M.A. in deaconess studies. In addition, Ashley has participated in two short-term mission trips: to Haiti (2014) and Guatemala (2018). Her hobbies include junk journaling, scrapbooking, doing puzzles, watching movies, playing cards and board games, and spending time with family and friends.

Pray for Ashley as she serves the church and the people in Puerto Rico. Ask God to work through Ashley to bring the Good News to people who are desperate for words of hope. Pray for God's guidance and faithfulness in her endeavors. In addition, ask God to give her strength and endurance as she continues to learn Spanish. Let us give thanks to God that Ashley is serving His children in this part of the world.

Pray daily for Ashley – and how you can support and tell others about her ministry. Visit lcms.org/lehr
