

Here's a 5-day Bible reading plan and devotional guide based on the themes from Pastor Pett's sermon from Holy Trinity Sunday, May 31, 2026:

5-Day Devotional: The Trinity's Love for Our Salvation

Day 1: Convicted by Love

Reading: John 16:5-11

Devotional: The Holy Spirit's primary work is conviction—not to condemn, but to awaken us to our need for Christ. Just as Peter proclaimed to the crowd, "This Jesus whom you crucified," the Spirit holds up a mirror to our souls, revealing our desperate condition. But conviction without the cross is only despair. The same Spirit who convicts also reveals God's remedy: Jesus Christ, crucified and risen. Today, don't run from feelings of guilt or shame over sin. Instead, let them drive you to the cross where love held Jesus in place—not nails, but His unfailing love for you. Conviction is the doorway to freedom when it leads us to our Savior.

Day 2: The Trinity's Perfect Plan

Reading: Acts 2:22-24

Devotional: God's plan for your salvation wasn't an afterthought or emergency response. From eternity past, the Father designed, the Son executed, and the Spirit proclaimed the perfect rescue mission. Over 330 Old Testament prophecies pointed to Jesus—each detail fulfilled with precision. This wasn't chance; this was divine love in action. The same God who spoke creation into existence spoke salvation into reality through Christ. When you face uncertainty today, remember that the God who orchestrated every detail of redemption orchestrates your life with the same intentional love. Nothing about your salvation—or your sanctification—is accidental. You are held in the grip of a purposeful, triune God.

Day 3: Jesus Makes All the Difference

Reading: Psalm 16:8-11

Devotional: "This Jesus" changes everything. Not a philosophy, not a good example, but this specific person—Jesus of Nazareth, crucified under Pontius Pilate, raised on the third day. David prophesied that God's Holy One would not see corruption, and Jesus fulfilled it perfectly. For thirty-three years He kept God's law flawlessly; for six hours He bore your sin completely. His resurrection proves death has been conquered, sin has been paid for, and the devil has been defeated. These enemies now lie as footsteps beneath His feet—and you stand victorious with Him. Whatever you face today, face it knowing Jesus makes all the difference. Your battles are already won.

Day 4: Freedom Through Sacrifice

Reading: John 15:9-17

Devotional: "Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends." Jesus spoke these words knowing He would soon demonstrate them on Calvary. The freedom we celebrate isn't cheap—it cost God everything. Just as we honor the brave who gave their lives for our national freedom, how much more should we honor Christ who gave His life for our eternal freedom? You are free from sin's condemnation, death's sting, and Satan's accusations. But freedom isn't passive; it's active love responding to love received. Today, let Christ's sacrifice convict you to sacrificial living—loving others as extravagantly as you have been loved.

Day 5: Living Convicted in Faith

Reading: 1 John 4:7-19

Devotional: To be "convicted in faith" means living with constant awareness of both our sin and God's greater grace. This dual awareness keeps us humble yet hopeful, broken yet beloved. The Father planned your redemption, the Son purchased it, and the Spirit applies it daily to your heart. This Trinitarian love should fundamentally reshape how you see yourself and others. You are simultaneously guilty and forgiven, unworthy yet chosen, broken yet being made whole. Let this truth drive you deeper into God's arms and outward toward others in compassion. The same love that convicted you now compels you to reflect Christ's love to a watching world.
