Open Table on Wednesday Nights

Beginning September 9

Open Table Dinners, prepared by Chef Johnny, are served from 5:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

Programming is available for children, youth and adults.

Life Groups Begin Meeting in September

Life Groups are an expression of dynamic Christian community, in which groups of 5-15 individuals are nurtured in discipleship and in faith. Life Groups at Covenant resume and launch September 9 and will meet for 6 consecutive weeks. We hope you'll join us in study and conversation centered around our program theme, "Building What Matters." Write "Life Groups" on your WRC to learn more.

Senior Pastor Transition

Celebrating Bob Henderson's Ministry

Sunday, September 13, 12:20 p.m. in the Sanctuary, followed by lunch

While RSVPs are not required, they will help us plan accurately.

Covenant is collecting a love offering for Bob as an expression of our congregation's gratitude for his many years of faithful ministry. You can contribute to the Love Offering and RSVP to the celebration at covenantpresby.org/transition.

Young Adult Fall Kickoff

Sunday, September 13, 3:00 p.m. at Rally Pickleball

Covenant YA looks forward to returning to Rally Pickleball for a time of fellowship and friendly competition. While some may have been practicing throughout the summer, all skill levels are welcome. For those inclined to observe, we have several lounge areas reserved where football, good conversation, and information on fall programming will be available. Food and non-alcoholic beverages will be provided. Write "YA Fall Kickoff" on your WRC to RSVP.

9:30 a.m. Contemporary Service in the Sanctuary

11:00 a.m. Contemporary Family Service in the Fellowship Hall

11:00 a.m. Traditional Service in the Sanctuary

Affordable Housing in Charlotte with Dr. Tom Hanchett

Wednesday, September 16, 10:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall

Join TLC for a conversation with perennial favorite Dr. Tom Hanchett about affordable housing in Charlotte. A renowned community historian and author of the new book Affordable Housing in Charlotte: What One City's History Tells Us About America's Pressing Problem, Tom will explore what "affordable" housing means, who qualifies, why Charlotte faces a shortage, and local success stories, including work Covenant has been involved in. Refreshments and conversation begin at 10:30 a.m., with the program starting at 11:00 a.m. Email Aisha Council at aisha.council@covenantpresby.org to RSVP.

Expressions of Faith: Creating as a Spiritual Practice

Wednesdays, September 9, 16 and 23; FH 207 A&B, 6:30 – 7:30. p.m.

Come join with others as we experience creative pursuits through a lens of faith.

September 9 | Faith on a String

Join Amber Brown for an evening of bracelet making and honest conversation about life and faith.

September 16 | Music and Faith

Join Organist and Music Therapist Mark Glaeser to explore how making and experiencing music is an integral part of the human experience of faith.

September 23 | SoulCollage

Join Michelle McDevitt-Askew, NCLMFT, for SoulCollage – an intuitive, expressive arts practice using simple materials like 5x8-inch mat boards, magazines, scissors, and glue.

Operation Sandwich/Operation Bag Lunch for Roof Above

Monday, September 14 (2nd Monday due to Labor Day)

Roof Above needs our help! We will continue to make bag lunches through the end of the year in order to help feed our neighbors while the Day Services Center is without a kitchen, so we need extra volunteers for food items and assembling. Write "Operation Sandwich" on your WRC to volunteer.

Covenant Serves Cookbook - Submissions are Open

Covenant Presbyterian's Health and Wellness Ministry is creating a unique, community-driven cookbook that showcases beloved recipes and stories of food and faith from our church members, provides spiritual nourishment, and supports our mission and outreach food partners.

We need your submissions! Write "cookbook" on your WRC to receive the submission form.
