Summer Internship in Christian Education and Discipleship

Want to make a meaningful impact on the lives of young people this summer? Join Covenant's Education Team as we partner with middle and high school students through four summer trips, authentic connection, and shared moments of reflection and growth. This internship is ideal for college or seminary students who are curious about working with youth and eager to explore ministry, education, or leadership in a supportive, purpose-driven environment. Visit Covenant's website to view the job description and email inquiries to grace.lindvall@covenantpresby.org.

Volunteers Needed for Room in the Inn

Monday, March 9

Help ensure our neighbors have a warm tasty meal and breakfast the next morning. Our sign-up includes items for dinner, dessert, breakfast items and bagged lunches. Families are encouraged to participate by preparing food in advance and/or serving our neighbors. Write "RITI" on your WRC to sign up.

NAMI Charlotte: You Are Not Alone

A Community Conversation on Mental Wellness

March 4 at 6:30 p.m. in Fellowship Hall Room 203 or watch on Zoom

Join us for a welcoming conversation on mental wellness and hope with NAMI Charlotte, the local affiliate of the National Alliance on Mental Illness. We'll share a brief, down-to-earth look at mental health in our community, highlight NAMI's peer-led support for individuals and families, and introduce free resources like the NAMI Navigator. This non-clinical, judgment-free gathering offers practical care tips, open conversation, and a reminder that no one has to walk alone.

Upcoming Sunday Series with Dr. Josh Morris

March 8, 15, 22; 9:30 a.m. in Fellowship Hall and on Zoom

Feeling overwhelmed by decisions? Wondering how to show up to the challenges facing our world, mend divisions, or discern your next faithful step in work and life? Join Dr. Josh Morris, Professor of Practical Theology at Union Seminary, army chaplain, and pastor in the United Church of Christ, for a three-week series exploring how faith shapes the choices we make — from everyday moments to the questions that keep us up at night. Topics for each week and a zoom link can be found at covenantpresby.org/sunday-events

Mystery and Mysterium - Led by Rev. Michael Lindvall

Wednesday, March 11, 18, 25 at 6:30 p.m. in Fellowship Hall Room 203

A three-week series exploring contemporary spiritual questions through the rich and compelling tradition of the mystery novel. Rev. Michael Lindvall, co-author of the Ludington–van der Berg mystery series, will guide conversation at the intersection of storytelling, theology, and everyday life. Participants are encouraged—but not required—to read Ashes to Ashes, the first novel in the series.

A link to purchase the novel, along with details on topics of each week, can be found at covenantpresby.org/wednesdays.

Middle School Not-So-Winter Retreat

March 20 - 22 (new date!)

Due to winter weather, we had to cancel our Winter Retreat in West Virginia in January. We are rescheduling a Middle School retreat for all 6th, 7th and 8th grade students for March 20-22. Activities and exact location to be determined. We will leave after school on Friday, March 20, and return on Sunday, March 22.

Write "MSY Retreat" on your WRC for more information.

Volunteers are needed! If you would like to join us, please email Andy Wertz to volunteer.
