ORDERED FOR A PURPOSE: FINDING FREEDOM IN GOD'S DESIGN

1 Corinthians 11:2-16

Notes:

Verses 2-3

Verses 4-6

Verse 7-12

Verses 13-16

Questions:

1. The world says true freedom means having no rules or boundaries. However, God connects freedom to walking in His truth and order. Read Psalm 119:44-45 and John 8:31-32. How does living within God's designed boundaries actually give us greater freedom?
2. 1 Corinthians 11:3 points to Christ submitting to God the Father. We know Jesus and the Father are completely equal in value and divinity. Read Philippians 2:5-8. How does looking at Jesus change the way we view submission and authority?
3. Paul reminds the church that men and women are entirely dependent on one another, which prevents any leadership from becoming heavy handed. Read Mark 10:42-45. Whether in your home, your workplace, or the church, how can you ensure your leadership reflects the sacrificial love and care of Jesus?
4. Paul wrote to correct several major distractions in the Corinthian church. People were drawing attention to themselves through their appearance, mistreating the Lord's Supper, misusing spiritual gifts, and speaking out of turn. Read Ecclesiastes 5:1 and 1 Corinthians 14:33. Why does God desire our church gatherings to be orderly and free from personal distractions?
