Growth Questions

These questions are to help you apply the weekend's message to your life and to help others – like those in a Growth Group – do the same. Can being honest and vulnerable about your life be intimidating? Is it OK to struggle and have real questions? The answer to both questions is “Yes,” and that is why we have Growth Groups. A Growth Group is meant to be a safe place where we help people know, love and serve Jesus better. If you're not in one, fill out a Connect Card & drop it in a giving box. If you missed this or any message, you view it on our website (redeemeraz.org) or our YouTube page.

1. Why is it important for the author of Hebrews to state, “Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says...”? How should that affect how we view not only this passage, but the rest of the Bible?
2. How does the author of Hebrews reinforce the original meaning and context of Psalm 95, at the same time expanding the meaning to include the Hebrews, and our, contexts? What does this tell us about how NT writers use the Old Testament and how we should do the same?
3. For those who struggle with unbelief or moments of rebellion, what help and encouragement does this text offer? Why is it so important to know the difference between struggle with submission and rejection of God's authority?
4. How can you, as a follower of God and hearer of His voice, work to adjust your heart attitude in those moments of doubt and temptation to seize control from God?
