SUNDAY COURSES - COMMENCES 8TH MARCH

BEATITUDES

SUNDAYS | 4-Weeks | 1.30pm (2 hrs)

In line with our theme, 'Lift Jesus Higher', The Beatitudes (Matthew 5:3-10) are eight blessings given by Jesus during the Sermon on the Mount, outlining a "counter-cultural" lifestyle for his followers. Rather than rewarding wealth or power, they praise virtues like humility, mercy, and peace-making, promising spiritual satisfaction and the Kingdom of Heaven.

They represent "be-attitudes"—internal, godly character traits. Derived from the Latin word beatus (meaning "blessed" or "happy"), they describe the internal character traits of a citizen of God's Kingdom rather than a list of rules.

LIVING LIFE THRU THE LENS OF the Beatitudes will exalt Jesus and bring healing to a broken world.

PENTECOSTAL HISTORY AND ASSEMBLIES OF GOD HISTORY IN MALAYSIA

SUNDAY | 1.30 - 4.15pm

Modern Pentecostalism originated in the early 20th century, growing from holiness movements into a global, spirit-filled, and interracial movement characterized by speaking in tongues. Key milestones include the 1901 Topeka revival under Charles Parham, the 1906-1909 Azusa Street Revival led by William J. Seymour, and the 1914 founding of the Assemblies of God.

SPIRITUAL WISDOM FOR AN EARTHLY WORLD - FROM 1 AND 2 KINGS

SUNDAYS | 4-Weeks | 1.30pm (2 hrs)

This course examines biblical marketplace wisdom in 1 & 2 Kings, drawing leadership and ethical insights from the lives of Israel's kings and key figures. Students will explore decision-making, governance, crisis leadership, project execution, and prayerful dependence on God, applying these lessons to contemporary workplace and leadership contexts.

Rev. Chin Keng Leong, Rooted in 35 years of pastoral ministry, social and marketplace experiences, the course integrates biblical depth with practical application. It is structured and drawn from 62 devotional reflections from each chapter, supported by guided study materials and over 350 application-focused questions, enabling learners to connect Scripture with leadership responsibilities, integrity, resilience, and godly character in the marketplace.

Dr. Victor Lee, PhD (Aberdeen), has been the Bible College of Malaysia (BCM) president since January 2017. His area of interest includes the Gospel of John, the origin of Christianity, and Pentecostalism. Currently he is also an Executive member of Assemblies of God Malaysia.
