Questions:

- 1) The lesson teaches that we are spirit, soul, and body—and that our spirit is eternal. How should this truth shape the way we think about life today?
- 2) The lesson says believers will be judged not for salvation, but for works, motives, and faithfulness. How does this challenge the idea that “what I do doesn’t really matter as long as I’m saved”?
- 3) What does living with an eternal mindset actually look like in daily life—relationships, work, finances, ministry, and personal holiness?
- 4) The same power that will raise our bodies from the dead already lives in us by the Holy Spirit. What does it look like to live from resurrection power instead of merely hoping for it someday?
- 5) When you think about building with gold, silver, and precious stones, what faith-filled actions today are actually depositing eternal reward into your future with Christ?
