

Discernment

Discernment is the ability to recognize _____ from error, _____ from wrong, and the voice of _____ from false influences.

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of _____, and the world does not _____ Him.

The mind of the flesh is _____, but the mind of the Spirit is _____ and _____.

The Holy Spirit will _____ us into all truth.

Without discernment, we can be _____ by every wind of doctrine.

We are called to _____ the spirits and not believe every _____.

A renewed mind helps us discern the _____ of God.

Discernment can also operate as a _____ gift.

Sanctification

Sanctification means being _____ apart and _____ into Christ's likeness.

We are sanctified and are being _____.

Salvation is not based on our _____, but on God's _____.

In Christ, we are a _____ creation.

Sanctification is initiated by the _____ through the _____.

God's will for our lives is our _____.

Sanctification leads to _____ to Christ.

We are called to be _____ as He is holy.

Walking by the Spirit gives us _____ over sin.

Sin no longer has _____ over the believer.

Discipline produces the _____ fruit of righteousness.

Our weapons are not _____, but _____ through God.

We take every thought _____ to the obedience of _____.