FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What kind of church is Calvary Chapel? Calvary Chapel Hill Country is a non-denominational church that welcomes people from all backgrounds. We believe and teach that the Bible is God's Word and should be taken seriously. We are a part of the Calvary Chapel fellowship of churches; for more information, please visit www.cchillcountry.org.

Do you have a statement of belief? Yes. Please feel free to pick up a copy of "What We Believe" from the information table at the back of the sanctuary. We encourage you to study this brochure including the verses referenced in it. If you have any questions regarding the information in this brochure, please feel free to call us.

Do you baptize babies? No, but we do publicly dedicate babies to the Lord. We do not believe the Scriptures tell us to baptize children who are not old enough to make a conscious profession of Jesus as Lord and Savior. If you would like to dedicate your child or children to the Lord before the church, please let us know.

Why are children dedicated to the Lord? The act of publicly dedicating children is an encouragement to the parents and the entire church. Promises are made by the parents before the congregation. The congregation agrees to accept responsibility to help the parents as they raise their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
