BUILD THE CHURCH

YOUR KINGDOM

HEAVEN.

DEAR CHURCH,

What an incredible season we are in at Victory Faith. God continues to move in powerful ways—people are coming to Jesus, lives are being transformed, families are being restored, and people are finding freedom, healing, and purpose. We are deeply grateful for all He is doing, but we also believe there is so much more ahead.

As our church continues to grow, God is giving us opportunities to reach further than ever before. We are making room for more people here in Spokane, investing in the next generation, strengthening churches and ministries throughout our region, and preparing to launch Victory Faith Knox. What God is doing through this house is reaching far beyond what any of us could accomplish on our own.

This is what Legacy is about. It is about looking beyond ourselves and investing into what will outlive us. Every year, your extraordinary generosity allows us to respond to opportunities that go beyond our regular budget and move forward with vision for the future.

We are not simply giving toward what is—we are making room for what is coming.

Heidi and I are incredibly grateful to lead such a generous and faith-filled church. As we bring our Legacy Offering this year, we invite you to pray, listen to the Holy Spirit, and ask God how He would have you be part of building what comes next.

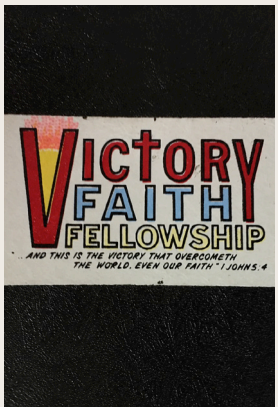

The best is still ahead.

*With love and gratitude,
Pastors Trevor + Heidi Seaman*

Our 2025 Legacy Offering is making an impact far beyond our walls, both in our city and across our nation. Here's a look at what your generosity is making possible:

STRETCHING OUR TENT PEGS

God opened the door for us to purchase land directly adjacent to our property—an answer to years of prayer and a significant step forward for Victory Faith.

As our church continues to grow, parking has become one of our greatest limitations. This new property gives us the potential to nearly double our parking capacity. Ultimately, more parking means more room for people: more families walking through our doors, more people encountering Jesus, and more lives being changed.

This is more than land. It's room for what God is doing and what is still to come.

THE BIG GIVE

Through the Big Give, our Life Groups came together to bring Christmas to 55 families across our community. Alongside what Victory Faith provided, Life Group members gave thousands of additional dollars to purchase gifts and meet practical needs. Each gift carried a message: you are seen, you are valued, and you are deeply loved by God.

LAUNCHING A CAMPUS IN KNOXVILLE

While we are making room for more people here in Spokane, a new chapter is beginning in Knoxville, Tennessee. Earlier this year, we announced the launch of Victory Faith Knox, a new campus led by Pastor Jonathan and Destiny Roberts.

Launching in 2027, Victory Faith Knox will carry the same mission as the heart of this house: leading people to life in Jesus. Their launch team is already growing as they prepare to welcome people into a community where they can encounter God and discover new life in Him.

RECAP

In addition to our Legacy Offering, Victory Faith dedicates 10% of our finances to making a difference in our city, across our nation, and around the world. Through community events, disaster relief, and ministry partnerships, your giving is helping us meet practical needs and share the hope of Jesus.

VICTORY HOOPS

This year, we brought back our 3-on-3 basketball tournament, Victory Hoops. We heard countless testimonies from people in our community who were blown away by your generosity. We served over 2,000 people, welcomed 90 teams, and brought together more than 400 volunteers to show the love of Christ through free pizza, hot dogs, popcorn, ice cream, and more.

SHARING HOPE IN TRAGEDY

For years, Victory Faith has partnered with Convoy of Hope to bring relief when disaster strikes. This August, that disaster hit home.

As devastating fires swept through our region, Convoy of Hope sent three semi trucks and 50 pallets of relief supplies directly to Victory Faith. More than 500 volunteers showed up to serve, distributing food, hygiene items, socks, and essential supplies to families in need. Over 1,000 vehicles came through our parking lot as our teams distributed 93,000 pounds of supplies—enough to serve 4,000 families.

But it was about more than meeting practical needs. As cars came through, our teams had the opportunity to pray with people, offer hope, and remind our community of a simple truth: God sees you, and He loves you.

SEEING LIVES CHANGED

This year, we've seen the reach of Victory Faith extend far beyond our walls. We gave over $325,000 to local, national, and international churches and nonprofits that are fulfilling the Great Commission. These ministries include Fellowship of Christian Athletes, HeartCry For Change, Helping Captives, Sexuality Unmasked, Ministers Fellowship International, Northwest Christian School, PAL LAPBOARD Project, Second Harvest Bite2Go, Sozo Church, Spokane Fatherhood Initiative, The Father's House, The River Church, This Mission, True Hope, Valley Christian School, and the Victory Faith Bungoma Campus.

These partnerships are fueling transformation, strengthening the Church, raising up leaders, and advancing the message of Jesus in powerful ways.

THE CHURCH WE SEE

The church we see is alive with the power of the Holy Spirit, the tangible presence of God, worship that shakes the atmosphere, and hearts that keep responding to the altar.

We see salvations becoming normal, people constantly meeting Jesus, prodigals coming home, skeptics encountering a love they can't explain, and the broken finding belonging and acceptance.

We see baptisms week after week, the old washed away, the new raised to life, the sound of heaven rejoicing as sons and daughters rise in victory.

The church we see burns with the Word of God, does not compromise the truth, and convicts people to the point of transformation. The people are hungry for the Scriptures again.

We see prayer as the heartbeat of God's delivering power which heals bodies, renews minds, shatters addictions, restores relationships, and continually testifies of His goodness.

The church we see has every generation standing side by side, unified. Husbands and wives interceding together, setting an example of laughter, worship, and forgiveness in the home. The fathers lead with love, the mothers speak life, and the grandparents pour wisdom into the next wave of revivalists.

We see Spirit-filled children, sons and daughters strong in their identities, students on fire for Jesus, and young adults ushering in the future of the church with purity and power.

We see leaders rising, men and women discovering their callings: pastors and prophets, business leaders and creatives, teachers, dreamers, and builders, each one anointed to bring the Kingdom of God into their world.

We see our church as a launching pad, where gifts are activated, ministries are birthed, and the next generation is trained, equipped, and released to go.

We see new campuses springing up in Spokane and reaching to other cities, and states, and nations, each one carrying the same fire, the same message, the same presence.

We see our city transformed by the Gospel, student-led prayer filling schools, businesses marked by Kingdom excellence and generosity, neighborhoods thriving because the people of God dwell there.

We see love that refuses to stay inside these walls, that feeds the hungry, restores families, uplifts widows, and draws the lonely into the family of God.

We see light that shines in the darkness and brings the message of freedom with the preaching of the gospel.

We see the church as the forerunner of creativity, with songs from the secret place shaking stadiums; art, film, and media dripping with the oil of the Holy Spirit, craftsmanship that reclaims creativity for the glory of God.

We see a church where every color, every background, every story belongs—a multi-generational, multi-ethnic movement of grace and truth.

We see a church with many parts, yet one heart, one sound, one purpose.

We see a church thriving, advancing from glory to glory.

We see a church that will not grow weary in well-doing, but will reap a harvest because it doesn't retreat from darkness but advances into it.

*A Church that still believes the gospel can change a city!
A Church that the gates of hell cannot prevail against!
We see the fire of revival sweeping across this region!
We see America turning back to God!
Through the Church!*

Legacy is our opportunity to look beyond ourselves and give toward what God is building through Victory Faith.

Together, we are creating room for more people to encounter Jesus, carrying the Gospel into new communities, and investing in the next generation.

Every gift helps us reach more people, impact more lives, and prepare the way for what God wants to do next.

What we build together today can make an eternal difference for years to come.

This is our Legacy.

Begin with prayer. Ask the Lord how He would have you participate in this year's Legacy Offering. Your giving is a personal response to His leading.

Then, make a decision in faith. Each of us has something to bring, and every gift matters. We believe it's not about equal giving, but equal sacrifice.

Together, our generosity helps reach more souls and opens the door for more people to encounter Jesus. Give during our services on November 8, or online at victoryfaith.org/give by selecting "Legacy."
