God Is Moving

Lisa Fuller

Do you feel God moving in your life? Do you see Him at work in our church? Now is the time to notice and join Him. The Lord is working through the hands and feet of our ministries. We are blessed with many opportunities to serve our community and the communities around Tulsa. I see His hand at work, and I feel compelled to share the goodness of what He is doing through His Church and the body of Christ.

Each Wednesday evening, I join our College and Young Adult group in the Chapel. The Lord is shaping this ministry in powerful ways. Together we are digging into the book of Romans, asking honest questions, wrestling with what it means to follow God, and seeking biblical answers for life's challenges.

Our young adults are navigating the real, everyday challenges of life while learning to apply biblical truth and discover what they truly believe. I love that we can pursue authenticity, faithfulness, and truth together. It brings me great joy to see our church be a safe place where honest questions are welcomed and where we seek answers by turning to God's Word.

At the Ministry Center, we are in a season of harvest. For years, we have invested in our community by consistently showing love, offering care, and sharing the gospel. Because of that faithfulness, lives are being transformed. People are coming to Christ every month, sometimes nearly every week! Some of our long-time clients are now housed, rebuilding their lives, and reconnecting with their families. As we celebrate these victories, our hearts are encouraged, and our passion is renewed to continue sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Let me ask you a question. Are you connected to a ministry? Our church has many opportunities to serve, grow, and share the love of Christ. If you are not sure where to start, we would love to help you find a place to get plugged in.

If you are in a season of prayer and waiting and have not yet seen the harvest, take heart. Stay in God's Word and continue to pray. Scripture reminds us in 2 Thessalonians 5:16-18, "Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, and in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you."

Even when we cannot see it, God is working. He is faithful, and He is moving among us!

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

The Annie Armstrong Easter Offering is the primary way Southern Baptists fund missions in North America. Gifts to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering are used to train and resource missionaries in church planting and compassion ministries. Gifts are also used to create evangelism resources. New churches are being planted, hurts are being healed, and lives are being transformed by the gospel because you give.

Congratulations Jesse Johnston on 5 Years!

Our Associate Minister of Pastoral Care and Chaplaincy, Jesse Johnston, celebrates five years at South

Tulsa this month. Jesse's intentionality and ministerial heart are seen in the many ways he serves the church and those he is called to. Jesse often preaches at The Ministry Center on Sundays and is involved in the Coffee Bunker - a ministry that serves our active-duty service members and veterans. His passion for chaplaincy in the Army National Guard and for stepping into moments of crisis with families reflects how the Lord has equipped him, and we're thankful he uses those gifts to minister to our church family. Congrats Jesse!
