

Changing Lives by Sharing Christ, Making Disciples, Serving People, and Giving Hope

Sermon Notes: July 2 & July 5, 2026

If you worshipped with us after Easter this past year, you may remember that we embarked in a sermon series, "Seeing Red," in which we looked at the red letters of Jesus. As in some versions of the Bible mark the teachings of Jesus in red font. While Paul doesn't have a font color for his words, maybe he should. For Paul certainly offers wisdom for us as we live to follow Jesus today. Romans 12:9-21 is one such passage of wisdom.

In fact, I think that this is great advice as we approach the 250th anniversary of the United States of America. Paul instructs on sincerity of faith, a life rooted in hope, leaving judgment to God, and loving those whom we have a hard time loving. All of this is understanding which we need, and I dare say this is also understanding which our nation needs. I encourage you to spend some time this week in the "red letters of Paul." In them, may you find grace for the journey and guidance for celebrating 250 years of our country.

Summer Devotional Suggestions

"You will seek Me and find Me when you seek Me with all your heart." – Jeremiah 29:13

As our regular Wednesday morning Bible Study and Wednesday Night Small Groups take a break for the summer months, we encourage you to continue nurturing your walk with the Lord in simple, meaningful ways. Whether you are at home or traveling, these ideas are meant to help you stay connected to God at your own pace.

1. Spend Time in Scripture

Choose a simple focus for the summer, such as the Psalms or the parables of Jesus. Read a short passage each day or week, asking: What does this teach me about God? How can I respond?

2. Take Your Devotional Time Outdoors

Use the beauty of summer as a reminder of God's presence. Sit on a porch, walk in a park, or pause during your day to reflect on His creation and give thanks.

3. Keep It Simple and Consistent

Set aside a few quiet moments each day or a longer time once or twice a week. Even a brief time in prayer and Scripture can be deeply meaningful.

4. Pray with Intention

Use this season to focus on prayer. Pray for your family, your church, and specific needs in our community. Consider keeping a short list to guide your prayers.

5. Practice Gratitude

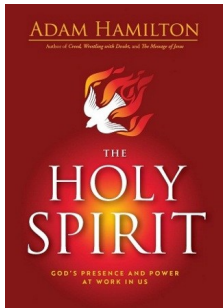

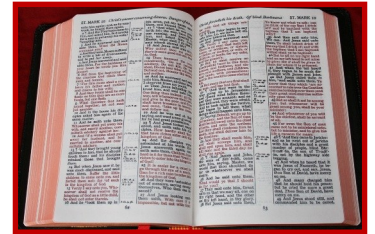

Each day, take a moment to thank God for specific blessings. Writing them down in a journal can help you see His faithfulness over time.

Wednesday morning Bible study and Wonderful Wednesday Small Groups resume in August.
