

“The Sunday 10” from Joshua 1:1-9

09.21.2026

1. As we open the Book of Joshua to examine a WORTHY WALK, we first encounter a man in incredibly difficult circumstances. Have you ever had some of those? (I know I have!)
2. The first thing that we see God doing with this man and his circumstances is seeking to have a personal, intimate conversation. God wants the same thing in our lives – daily. (this is how a WORTHY WALK begins)
3. Remember – Joshua (and the born-again believer) have the same calling: to WALK (and wage WARFARE) in VICTORY to POSSESS OUR INHERITANCE.
4. The amazing thing: the VICTORY in which we are called to WALK has already been WON! God has already secured it! We just need to WALK in it.
5. It is as if God is saying, “I don’t need you to die for me. I’ve already died for you: I am asking you to live for me with the life I have given you.”
6. Joshua knew he was up against giants, Amalekites, and Shittim. These three picture the adversaries you and I are up against: external adversaries (giants); our flesh (internal adversary, aka, Amalekites); and our comfort, convenience and desire to settle (Shittim).
7. Like Joshua, you will never feel like you’re able to walk on your terms. In fact, walking worthy cannot be on your terms; unless your terms are Christ’s terms (Heb. 10:5-7; Gal. 2:20).
8. Like Joshua, the born-again believer has been promised an inheritance – God wants us to REMEMBER it while we walk. It far exceeds anything we could imagine for ourselves.
9. Like Joshua, God is willing to bring every born-again believer to points of decision in their lifetime regarding one key question: DECIDE whether God is WORTHY to you. (Josh. 24:15)
10. God reminds us through Joshua of two facts:
 - The only thing He needs to work in you is for you to have a willing heart
 - The circumstances will never appear ideal in your eyes – but your God is able
