

Pastors Steven and Wanda Martin

ABOUT PASTOR WANDA:

Pastor Wanda, Over 20+years ago, left her role as a successful Health Information Administrator Director, to enact the changes she felt were so desperately needed within her community.

Stepping out on faith, and alongside with her husband Steven Martin, founded and pastor Higher Ground Church International, a non-denominational, contemporary, multi-racial ministry in Philadelphia and Pottstown, PA. With two campuses- Pastor Wanda has gone on to provide life -changing word to enrich the lives of others in an impactful way by hosting an annual God's Girls Getaway Retreat which host hundreds of women, Musical Artists and well know female preachers and speakers from all over the country. Pastor Wanda also has a passion to pour into and train many Women leaders from the Tri State area and therefore has hosted a variety of SOS sessions (Strengthening Other Sisters) leadership and mentoring events for female leaders and pastors only.

The call of God on Pastor Wanda's life is to teach the Word of God, so that lives can be change and people can be set free and delivered. During the years that Pastor Wanda has been pasturing, she has fulfilled God's mandate on her life to raise up a body of believers that know that there is nothing impossible with God!

Pastor Wanda's dynamic and life-changing teaching has challenged and inspired many to walk out their days in their true destiny.
