

DEUTERONOMY—2 Community Group Questions

Deuteronomy 26:16-19

1—Where have you seen the Lord work in your life this past week?

DEUTERONOMY—Moses' final thoughts, final charge to NCC.

TORAH—first five books. Deuteronomy is the last book in the TORAH (LAW). 34 chapters.

Chapter 26 Moses begins his final comments before moving into the Land God had promised to Abraham (Genesis 12) and his descendants. The "PROMISED LAND."

--The TORAH captures the ups and downs of God's people trying to get to PROMISED LAND.

Exodus 1 to the CROSSING OF THE RED SEA—80 years. 40 Years in the desert.

Deuteronomy 26-34—Moses' final words of encouragement!

2—When you hear the phrase—"SENSE OF URGENCY"—what comes to mind? What areas of your life would you say you have a sense of urgency?

3—Read Deuteronomy 26:16-19. Moses says "THIS DAY" three separate times in these verses. For Moses, his message to the Israelites was urgent. Why do you think Moses would have a sense of urgency with his message?

4—What does it mean when Moses tells the Israelites to "carefully observe" God's commands with all their "heart and soul?" Can you think of anything you have done with "all your heart and all your soul?" If you were to "carefully observe" God's commands in your life this week, what would a typical day for you look like?

5—How do you think the Israelites felt when Moses tells them that they are God's treasured possession? What comes to your mind when you are told you are God's treasured possession? Is this a new thought for you? Can you recall when you first reflected on this idea?

6—What do you think it means to be a people holy to the Lord (v.19)?

7—Which of Sunday's points best resonates with you?

- The Lord has high expectations of you this day.
- Head knowledge alone falls short.
- Giving your full self to God takes intentionality.
- Your daily life reveals Whom you serve.
- Your value is in Whom you belong.
- Your life is set apart for God alone.

8—How can you apply these verses in your life this week?