

4) In the last days how has He spoken?

5) What is meant by last days?

6) Who is God's Son? For reference see Matthew 3:16-17.

7) Make a list of all the things you learn about the Son in Hebrews 1:2-4. (I found 8.)

8) Which of the things you listed in question 7 is the most meaningful or significant to you? Why?

9) Look up the definition of the word "heir" and write it below.

10) Read Colossians 1:16 and Psalm 2:6-7. What do you learn about Christ being the heir of all things?

Day 3

---

11) Look up the word "created" and write the definition below.

12) Who made the world and how? You might want to reference Genesis 1 and also John 1:1-5.

13) What are the implications of the Son creating the world?

14) Because He is the radiance of God's glory and the exact imprint of His nature, what does He do?
See also John 14:9-10 and II Corinthians 4:4-6.

15) He is the exact representation of His being. How does this differ from the way we were created?
Read Genesis 1:26-27.

Day 4

---

16) How powerful is the Son? Read also Colossians 1:17 and II Peter 3:5-7.

17) How does the verb tense change in the second half of Hebrews 1:3? What does this communicate?

18) How does Jesus purify us from our sins? Read Hebrews 9:13-14, I John 1:7, and Revelation 7:14.

19) What evidences are in your life that you believe Jesus has purified you from your sin? How might it impact the way you live?

Day 5

---

20) Why is it significant that Jesus sits at the right hand of God? For insight look ahead to Hebrews 10: 11-12.

21) What is Jesus doing at the right hand of God? See also I Peter 3:22 and Romans 8:34. How does this encourage and strengthen you on a daily basis?

22) According to verse 4, how does Jesus compare with the angels? In what ways?

23) Who or what is speaking to you? What voice has the greatest influence in your life? How does this affect you daily?

24) How do you know Jesus better as a result of your study this week?

25) How might knowing Jesus this way transform you?