

Part Time Senior Pastor - First Baptist Church of Woodland Hills

Church History

After years of planning, praying and envisioning by the Los Angeles Baptist City Mission Society, the first Sunday service of the First Baptist Church of Woodland Hills took place on May 7, 1950. For over 75 years, the congregation of believers are still responding to the Great Commission and firmly believe their greatest days of blessing and growth are yet ahead.

Mission Statement

“The First Baptist Church of Woodland Hills is a worshiping community of believers who are joyfully committed to the Lord Jesus Christ, nurturing and equipping each other to be disciples, who are called to the sharing of the good news in word and deed in our community and the whole world to God’s Glory.”

Congregation

With an average Sunday attendance of 40, and a dedicated American Baptist heritage, the congregation and part-time staff of the FBCWH are rooted in spiritual growth, devoted to the study of God’s Word, and committed to the mutual support of each other and the greater community. The goal is balancing numerical growth of our congregation along with biblical discipleship.
