

USHERS – Ms. Brenda Jenkins

Many people view ushering as simply showing people where to sit. In reality, ushering is one of the most important ministries in the church. Ushers are often the first people members and visitors encounter. They represent the spirit, hospitality, order, and safety of the congregation.

Every ministry position in the church is important, but the ministry of ushering is often underestimated. A church may have a gifted pastor, powerful worship, and excellent programs, but if visitors are not welcomed properly, feel unsafe, or are treated poorly, they may never return.

Ushers are ministers of hospitality, greeters, problem-solvers, communicators, safety personnel, and servant leaders.
