1st Commandment - You shall have no other gods.

1.) Martin Luther once wrote: "To whatever we look for any good thing and for refuge in every need, that is what is meant by 'god.' …To whatever you give your heart and entrust your being, that , I say, is really your God." His point was that idolatry is first and foremost a matter of trust and reliance in a person's heart. List or draw some things other than the one true God that people look to to give them security, purpose, and happiness in life?

2.) Which of these idols do you find yourself depending on or running to the most often?

3.) Using the chart below compare two of your idols from question 1 to the Lord.

MY IDOLS	WHAT I HOPE TO GET FROM IT?	WHAT ARE ITS LIMITATIONS?	HOW ARE THE LORD AND WHAT HE CAN GIVE BETTER THAN MY IDOL?
(Example:) Government	Personal safty, protection from enemy nations, help in disasster/tradedy.	Can't/won't always be there to keep me safe. Can't stop natural or other disasters from happening.	God controls all things—people, weather, govermnets, etc. He is always with me. He sends his angels to watch over me and can save me miraculously. He saves me from sin and death.
