ANNOUNCEMENTS

SUNDAY STUDY: 10 LIES ABOUT GOD— A common criticism of Bible-believers is that we and our faith are "anti-science." But this accusation is unwarranted. Christians confess from Scripture (even as we observe with our eyes and investigate with our minds) that God has made an incredibly complex and orderly universe. We delight in scientific inquiry into these mysteries, but we also recognize that science has real limitations and there is a distinct difference between objective evidence and its subjective interpretation.
